Rushton & Company's Barnett Attends International Meeting in Dubai

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (Nov. 29, 2011) — Rushton & Company partner Perry Barnett recently participated in the Crowe Horwath International Annual Meeting in Dubai which brought together business leaders from around the world.

Barnett took part in discussions relating to international taxation, diverse business cultures and cross border business development. These sessions also featured group discussions and presentations on global concerns for U.S. businesses.

"My focus at the meeting was on the business issues that our U.S. clients need to address when operating overseas," Barnett said. "We also gathered valuable insight into assisting foreign entities that are interested in operating in the United States and our North Georgia region."

Rushton & Company is associated with the Crowe Horwath network through its membership with CPAmerica International, one of the largest CPA firm organizations in the world.

"Crowe Horwath International/CPAmerica has more than 80 firms in the U.S. that we call upon routinely to assist with our service of clients in complex business matters," Barnett said. "This organization also allows us to work directly with CPA firms in 108 different countries to help us serve our clients."

Founded in 1981, Rushton & Company provides businesses throughout North Georgia with a wide variety of accounting services - including auditing, tax planning and return preparation, management consulting, payroll services and business valuation. It is one of the area's largest business accounting firms with over 25 staff professionals. In addition to general business operations, Rushton & Company offers financial expertise in a number of specific industry fields such as construction, agribusiness, government, healthcare, not-for-profit organizations, professional services, manufacturing and distribution.
