Rushton & Company's Tiffany Whitmire Selected for Leadership Hall County

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (June 24, 2011) — Tiffany Whitmire, Director of Business Consulting at Rushton & Company, has been selected to the 2011-2012 class of Leadership Hall County.

A leadership program of the Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Hall develops existing and emerging leaders by providing insight and knowledge about various aspects of the Gainesville-Hall County community. Class members participate in local programs on education, healthcare and social services, government, economic development, the courts, and community quality of life.

The program develops leadership abilities and encourages class members to work toward greater roles in the community in such areas as non-profit agencies and civic-related organizations. It also helps create greater awareness of issues facing the community while building relationships with local leaders.
