

Rushton & Company Sends A Little Bit of Home to U.S. Soldiers

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (Nov. 7, 2005) — Rushton & Company employees recently put together and sent 30 care packages to U.S. soldiers with the 220th ENG company stationed in Iraq.

“We found the soldiers’ names at www.anysoldier.com,” said Tonya Takach of Rushton & Company. “Anyone can go on this website and do the same thing we did.”

The care packages consisted of poker sets, footballs, DVDs, CDs, toiletries, food, powdered drink mixes, and stationery items.

“Many of us went to North Georgia College and know lots of people stationed in Iraq,” Takach said. “This is just one way we can show our support.”

After receiving the packages, “the 12 fearless females of the 220th” sent an e-mail to Rushton & Company saying that they had acquired few things to make their quarters more livable and that each package was like having Christmas.
